VISION & MISSION

“My dream is to unleash the potential of a billion people through upliftment and empowerment and see that India becomes an economic superpower”

I am glad that the new government led by charismatic Hon’ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi recognises the importance of foreign investments, joint ventures, technology transfers, co-production, public private partnerships and best management practices in all streams. There are indications of good governance, radical policy re-alignments and efforts to create an enabling tax environment for businesses and workforce to flourish.

However, as a Supreme Court lawyer practicing for over 30 years, I have seen the dawn and dusk of a variety of laws. While framing labour laws especially, the approach of lawmakers often tends to protect and safeguard the interests of employees. However, various laws over the decades have led to multiple interpretations. Instead of helping the employees, the cases now move from lower courts to high courts, and ultimately the apex court. This complicates the entire legal system and Indian courts are now full of long-pending disputes.

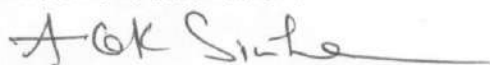

In a free market economy, a protectionist approach towards employees results in a unproductive and lethargic workforce lacking the spirit to excel. The balance of power between workers and managements gets disturbed, leading to industries losing competitive edge in Domestic and International markets.

We require highly motivated workers for businesses to prosper. But there is no law to prosecute a person who has no desire to work hard. An employee’s desire to perform well should come from within. The most important triggers to motivate people are financial incentives, job security and job progression but they cannot be given by forcing employers into submission. In today’s world, the way to create more stable employment opportunities is by encouraging investments. The competition among employers to get good employees and ‘a war for talent’ will ensure that workers are treated in a fair manner and their commitment is honoured.

I believe foreign investments should be promoted in a major way to create conducive work environments across the country. However, many investors – those already present in Indian market and others wanting to enter – have apprehensions about existing labour laws and time-consuming litigations. Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation is a forum comprising of legal experts specialising in employment issues which provides a platform for seminars and conferences where managements, bureaucrats, corporate executives and potential investors can interact, allay their apprehensions on certain issues, work towards simpler laws and encourage smooth flow of investments in a positive atmosphere.

Having travelled across the world and while interacting with non-resident Indians, I realised that many of them are doing extremely well in their fields. They want to contribute to India’s growth but are wary of the complex legal systems. With decades of expertise and access to key decision makers, we work towards clear policies backed by smooth regulatory mechanisms to attract investments so that lives of a billion people can be improved.

As Late Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam said: “Dream is not that which you see while sleeping, it is something that does not let you sleep.” We are committed to do whatever it takes to ensure that India emerges as a major investment destination.

Alok Sinha, Advocate, Supreme Court of India

BRIEF BACK GROUND

In today's world our fellow brothers (NRIs & PIOs) are scattered in every part of the globe. By God's grace, they are happy, well settled and have abundance of money but they are in minority, hence, desire to Unite. Their hard earned money is lying in Banks with meagre interest.

They have got great love and attachment to the soil where they belong. They want to invest the money in their own country as they also want to keep their roots intact by way of real estate and property in India for multiple reasons such as cater to safety & security in any eventuality, residential property, higher business interest etc. As they remain in minority in the foreign country, they seek connectivity with their motherland in times of crisis.

It will not be out of place to mention that although they are very happy and satisfied but crisis does not predict to anybody as:

- It happened in Iraq, Iran, Egypt and similarly in so many countries,
- Indian students were killed in Australia, UK & USA because of the politicism,
- 200 doctors were expelled from UK for no justified reasons and so on,

These are the few examples. Otherwise, this is happening everywhere with everybody at anytime. Therefore they require:

- Unity, representation and strong common voice for which they need common platform that binds them and give them stronger voice.
- To invest the money for larger rate of return securely in a potential field particularly in Real Estate/Infrastructure.
- For buying a property/shelter as a back up in the hour of need.
- The reliable legal support at a very reasonable cost as even for their legal issues or disputes in India, they are not properly looked after and are also charged exorbitantly.

NRIs who want to and have a need and desire to maintain links with the motherland are kept at bay owing to lack of legal support, proper representation and proper counselling. It is unfortunate that there is no trustworthy media to cater to the needs as mentioned above.

NRIs demanded simplification of procedural formalities and safety of their hard earned savings while investing in India, but complexity in the legal provisions and bureaucratic hurdles make the process complicated. In this scenario our fellow NRI/PIO brother should also be provided with convenience and support through the trustworthy media to be a part of unprecedented growth, prosperity and share of profitability.

In 2004 Mr. Alok Sinha, to fulfill his social obligation towards the society, founded the Bhartiya Society for Socio-Economic Development in Global Arena (BSSEDEGA) which subsequently converted to Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation (BLSF) in 2018.

The Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation (BLSF) is a non profit making organization (NGO) registered under the Indian Trust Act, 1882. BLSF is having powerful advisory board with strong support of powerful politicians, bureaucrats and influential persons to help NRIs/PIOs in most effective and efficient manner.

The NRIs have tremendous opportunities for investment in India. Persons of Indian origin have not only contributed to the culture and economic life of the countries where they live and work, they have also kept alive Indian traditions and culture in far flung places. Their efforts in infusing capital, ideas, and world class management have also contributed significantly to the Indian economy.

BLSF facilitates an effective platform to attract investment by contributing its efforts towards a noble cause of strengthening the bond between NRIs and India which will not only bring in more NRI investments for the economic development of our country but would provide a great service to NRIs who are desperately looking for avenues for safety and returns on their investment and thereby join with us in the mission of promoting unity, progress, friendship and cooperation between India and overseas Indians which will be a great service to the nation.

MAN BEHIND THE LEGAL SUPPORT FOUNDATION

FOUNDER PRESIDENT OF BHARTIYA LEGAL SUPPORT FOUNDATION - MR. ALOK SINHA

The founder and International President, Bhartiya Foundation, Mr. Alok Sinha is a practicing advocate in Hon'ble Supreme Court of India (The Apex Judiciary Body of Court of India). He is a lawyer of repute and stature, has vast in-depth experience of more than 32 years in the various fields with wide networking and connectivity which could be briefly elaborated as follows:

As Supreme Court Advocate: He has dealt with many reputed Companies nationally and globally. The long years of his practice has enabled him to interact with sections of society and get exposed to various legal and commercial facets. He is a lawyer of repute and stature and dealt and retained by most of the reputed and top listed Banks, Corporations, and MNCs of India and abroad. He has been the counsel of Dainik Jagran, Hindustan Times, Tata Chemicals Ltd., Exxon Mobil, HCL, Mitsubishi, Moser Baer, Motorola, Smith Management, NTPC, MTNL, New Holland Tractors, Mercedes Benz, etc. to name a few.

As Founder and International President of Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation: He is deeply involved in improving the socio economic conditions of India and providing unity, representation and legal services and investment support to NRIs/PIOs and promote bilateral/multilateral trade relations. In his view it's more important Indians around the globe are held high and that could be achieved with a dedicated organisation to bring the required entitlement to the Indians. Indians elsewhere are in minority and lack required legal knowledge in the hostile territories. This initiative of Mr. Sinha is to bring the required and credible help to our fellow countrymen.

Wide Networking: With the possession of such an influential personality, he commands a wide range of networking and a contact starting from the regulatory authorities to Hon'ble Ministers up to the highest level due to his high stature and elegant style. Hence, liasioning with the authorities by his team becomes spontaneous and effective.

Contribution in Investment Solicitation: He is extensively involved in foreign and domestic investment solicitation across the globe. He has been invited as key speaker in various National & International Conferences on different topics dealing with Investments in India. Govt. investment bodies from the European countries have requested his association to note.

Key Speaker on dais on International & National Conferences: In order to give life to his vision & thought, he has an excellent track record of organizing high level conferences/Seminars for development of law and removal of hurdles which comes in the way of smooth investment in India. As erstwhile Nehruvian model is not in vogue with the recent day Indian Governments., the only way to bring growth is by facilitating Foreign Investments. The Investors are needed to be made aware and needed to be adequately convinced to pour their money so that human development index in India could be upgraded. His way through is by organising conferences and have been doing it since a decade.

Labour welfare: With the unprotected like always been, Mr. Sinha has been instrumental in the enrichment of laws protecting the vast but inadequately protected labour force of India by organising interaction sessions time. The need of such nature felt with the opening up of Indian market to the International corporations which are finely conversant with the labour laws of international arena. As the labour market of India was vastly unprotected, Mr. Sinha's initiatives of bringing up awareness at all levels of the mechanism are acknowledged since a decade.

Offer from ICEX and Malta Enterprises: ICEX (The investment body of Spain) itself has contacted for arranging Joint Venture Partner Bhartiya Foundation and Malta Enterprise (Govt. body of Malta for bringing investments in Malta) met personally to divert investments to their country in sector of Healthcare and Biotech. Top Management Consortium, Pune has approached Mr. Sinha to support and to find Joint Venture partners and bring investments in Pune.

Malhi (President of South Hall Association in UK, Gurudwara Committee).

Invitation for various forums as Chief Speaker/Chief Guest: Mr. Sinha has been invited at various forums to deliver lectures at National and International Conferences on different topics dealing with Investments in India as Chief Speaker or Key Speaker.

PRIME OBJECTIVES

- India's overall development by helping to right-align the policies and actions for uplifting socio-economic conditions
- Promoting unity among people from various spheres of life
- Making representations and providing marquee legal services to Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) and Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs)
- Promoting bilateral and multilateral trade relations
- Enriching laws to protect the vast pool of workforce by organising interactive sessions with various stakeholders
- Planning to build a chain of old-age home for the elderly with rapid urbanisation and emergence of nuclear families across the country

The aim of BLSF is to mobilize and unite Indians and bring NRIs/PIOs closer to their motherland emotionally and financially by projecting India in correct perspective and thereby improve the public image of Indians in the international community and bring investments to the country by empowering with Legal knowledge. As NRIs are living away from the country are not aware of the achievements, progresses and developments made by the country. All of us believe that our motherland India has been ravished and ransacked by westerners and middle easterners time and again since centuries, things have changed and the country needs to be revitalised in the right directions. We are growing and could grow at a much faster rate given a chance. Our way ahead is let our able brothers and sisters bring back the wealth and we have been deprived of till now.

We believe all the three aspects (i.e. Legal empowerment, financial empowerment and Social empowerment) of NRIs/PIOs could be looked after by us. As the three yardsticks of human development depends upon them primarily.

1. UNITY & REPRESENTATION:

All of us know that the strength lies in unity. When we talk of people who are geographically separated, the importance of a forum arises. "Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation (BLSF)" is here to provide unity, representation and legal/investment support to NRIs/PIOs. It facilitates individual NRI and NRI Associations to raise a strong voice against any ill treatment here or elsewhere with them as they are in minority in the foreign country and they desperately require a strong platform through which they can be united and represented in the times of need. Only timely legal help can bring required results specially when in minority.

2. LEGAL SUPPORT THROUGH ASC SOLICITORS & ADVOCATES:

All of us know that in civilised countries around the world, nothing moves without legal knowledge. The objective of the BLSF is to empower and improve the socio economic conditions of India by

- i Guiding Investment Strategy as per Relevant Policies and Laws in India: Providing timely advice to the NRIs to invest their money in safe and profitable ventures along with legal support. This investment would create more employment opportunities which would further facilitate balance of power between employer & employee through which not only NRIs would be benefitted but also a large chunk of investment could be brought to India to improve its socio economic conditions. These services broadly include:
 - To bring & promote bilateral trade & investment through high level National and International Conferences & through publication of Eyelid Global India;
 - To simplify law so that the apprehension of the legal complication & litigation could be reduced from the mind of investors for smooth flow of investment
 - To inform & educate about the investment opportunities in Real Estate & Infrastructure through conference & Eyelid Global India so that they could not be misguided by wrong people;

- Updating NRIs/PIOs about the legal and other statutory provisions to enable them to plan their strategy accordingly
- Address the current and future requirement to the industry and economy as a whole by removing fears of investment in the Indian Industry owing to legal complications
- Suggesting the appropriate Tax Planning for doing investment in India through most beneficial route.

ii Providing Single Window Legal Support

To provide Single Window Service to NRIs/PIOs for all types of legal support to the NRIs & NRI Associations with regard to the issues generally faced by NRIs which covers the following

- Immigration
- Mutation of property, Inheritance/succession.
- Marriage/Divorce related problems.
- Adoption Issues
- To send money to parents/dependants in India for whom you wish to provide a monthly income
- To accumulate some local currency i.e. Rupee dominated assets for the NRIs who are planning to relocate to India in the future.
- Invest in Real Estate for growth & safety purposes.
- Taxation
- Repatriation
- Property Issues
- Study in India
- Health Care
- Will
- Loan etc.

3. PROMOTING FOREIGN DIRECT INVESTMENT:

An essential requirement of the foreign investing community in making their investment decision is availability of timely and reliable information about the policies and procedures governing FDI in India. In order to promote the Foreign Investment in India, BLSF is spreading awareness through its high level international conferences and seminars about the reforms announced by Indian Government.

Government has taken several steps such as implementation of several Industrial Policies, opening of FDI route, Foreign technology Agreements, set up of 100% EOUs/ EHTPs/ STPs etc. The form in which foreign direct investment is allowed in India is through collaborations that are of financial nature, joint venture collaborations, or through preferential allotments, and also through Euro issues.

4. OTHER SOCIAL SERVICE:

- To take up any social cause to raise voice through PIL to provide support to needy & to prevent undesired development
- To provide social assistance to needy
- To create employment to reduce poverty and to promote balance of power between employer and employee by attracting investments through NRIs/PIOs.
- Any other social work as and when there arise a cause we will rise up to the occasion and lead from the front.

CONFERENCES

BLSF has organised 7 successful conferences in the past decade supported and co-sponsored by ILO (International Labour Organisation), Planning Commission of India (Niti Ayog), Bombay Chamber of Commerce and ASSOCHAM etc, which has been graced by dignitaries like:

- His Excellency Mr. Mohammad Fazal – Governor of Maharashtra,
- Hon'ble Late Shri. Sahib Singh Verma - Minister of Labour (Govt. of India),
- Mrs. Sheila Dixit – Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi,
- His Excellency Mr. Francisco Da Camara Gomes - Head of the delegation of European Commission to India
- His Excellency Mr. Yasukuni Enoki – Ambassador of Japan to India and
- other eminent personalities

BLSF is also actively involved in organizing seminars and conferences at National and International levels in different parts of the world with the gracious participation of eminent personalities from Indian Politics, trade, industry, academicians, practice professional, bureaucrats from Government of India, Ambassadors of different countries and Representatives of Investment Promotion Bodies etc. to contribute towards simplification of the Laws and to come out with some improved, practical, concrete and workable suggestions for implementation to attract NRI investment with the rider of safeguarding their interest.

Conferences organised by BLSF are as under:

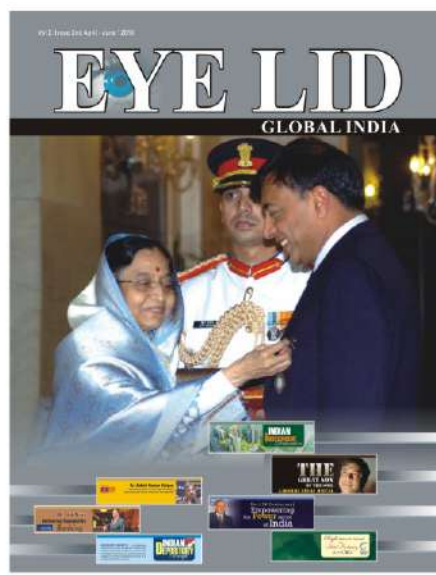

1. International Conference on Laws related to Foreign Direct Investment in India and Employment Laws (labour laws) on August 31, 2012 (Friday)
2. International Conference on Arbitration & Industrial Laws on March 15, 2010
3. International Conference on Arbitration & Industrial Laws on October 26, 2007
4. National Conference on Industrial & Corporate Laws on April 08, 2006
5. International Conference on FDI, Corporate & Labour Laws on February 15-16, 2005
6. National conference on industrial and corporate laws on October 13-14, 2003
7. National Seminar on Labour, Hire & Fire, Retrenchment & Termination on March 29, 2003
8. Musical Event for Social Cause: BLSF has organised a gala evening of a close gathering of approximately 50 eminent personalities like Leading Jurists, Government Officials and Bureaucrats for motivating and uplifting the social cause of the Foundation.

Upcoming Projects:

1. Conference on Development of Law & its impact on Indian Economy, National & International Arbitration & FDI to be held in February 2023.
2. Film on issues, concerns & challenges faced by NRIs in establishing themselves.
 - Discussed with reputed Directors Mr. Mahesh Bhatt & Mr. Anurag Basu.
 - Discussed with Universal Studios for Production related matters.

Some of the glimpses of the Conference are being enclosed as “Annexure-1”

PUBLICATION

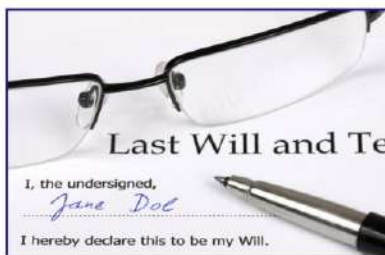

In spite of launching of several schemes by the Government, NRIs/ PIOs have not been benefited. There is not even a single platform which is dedicately involved in the process of updating NRIs/PIOs about the policies of the Government. BLSF, through publication of Magazine “Eyelid-Global India” is making an effort in this direction which will be followed by sending regular newsletters to them addressing their core issues and updating them about the Government’s policies in this regard which will cover all up to-date Government notifications and relevant material to enable NRIs to take advantage of broad based policies of the Government especially tailored for the NRIs in the context of present global industrial scenario for their justifiable and reasonable issues.

Judicial Review being a specifically process of development of law in Indian context could be better understood if learnt from our stalwarts of Hon’ble Supreme Court, the apex body in Indian judiciary. Updates and analysis specifically designed to the core concern of the Indian community abroad will bring a trust in the system and in long term could be beneficial for the following:

- Investment attraction to the country. (From Indians and other investment bodies of the countries)
- Familiarisation of Indian systems in the international community (Improve Transparency and trust in the Indian Legal System)
- Trust in the Indian Economy. (Profitability by Indians will lead to trust in the Indian Economy)
- Enrichment of Indian Community. (The Indian race will have benefit of a wealthy country and wealthy self)
- Simplification of Law by interaction with the target community. (By identifying the area of concern required development in the system could be focused upon.)
- Consolidation of adequate resources for the country. (Funds and technological knowhow could be attracted with international awareness)
- Improving brand value for the Indianness.
- Creating market for Indian products because of interaction.

5000 copies of these magazines are circulated to corporate houses, NRI industrialists, potential investors etc. This magazine is semi-legal magazine which tells about the potential investment destinations and provides legal information to make successful investments in India. In future it proposes to improve itself to investors essential to India.

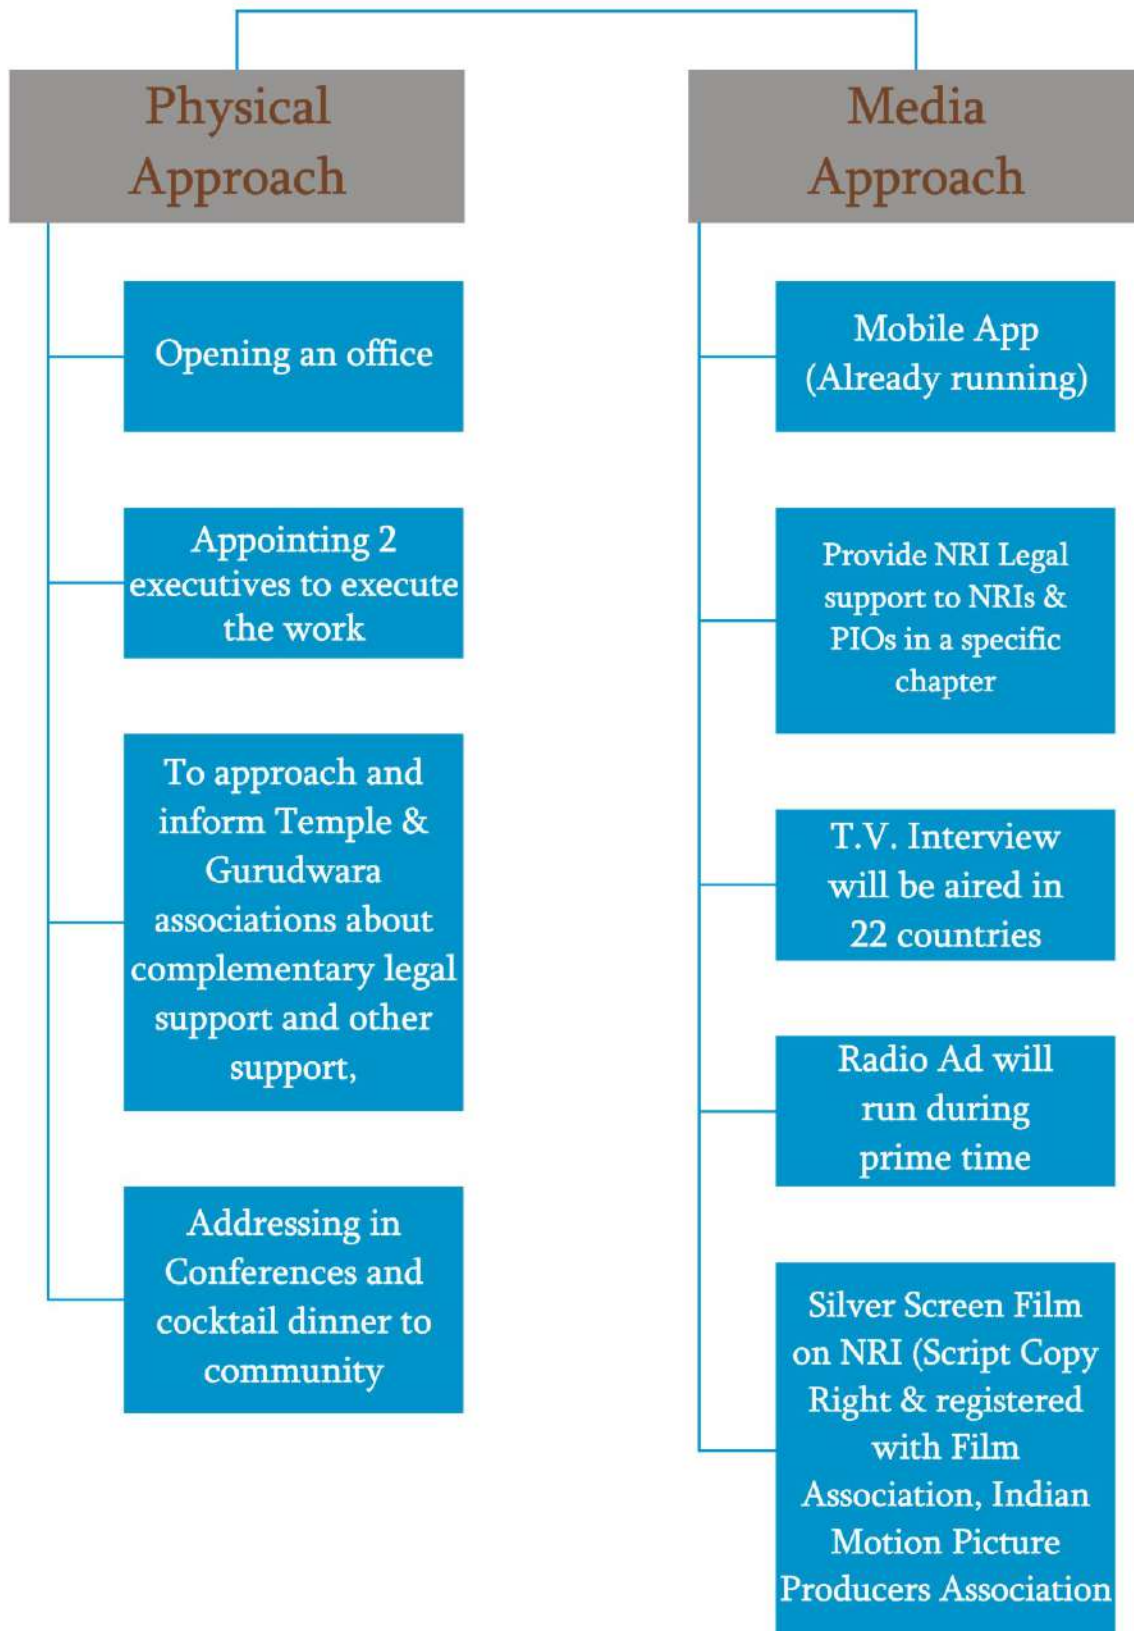

NRI ISSUES

Bhartiya Legal Support Foundation in collaboration with ASC Solicitors and Advocates provides solutions to many problems faced by Non Resident Indians and People of Indian Origin like:

- Unity & Representation
- Taxation
- Immigration
- Repatriation
- Returning to India
- Matrimonial Issues
- Mutation
- Succession
- Will
- Property Issues
- Study in India
- Healthcare
- Adoption etc.

IMPLEMENTATION SCHEME FOR NRI'S & PIO'S

CHAPTER WISE ACHIEVEMENTS

1. London Chapter

Some note worthy occasions where the concept of an institution with a noble cause to serve Indians globally were discussed and applauded with letter and spirit are elaborated below:

- Mr. Sinha was invited in South Hall (London) as a Chief Guest in a gathering of around 200 people where he shared the dais with the Mayor of Ealing – Mr. Rajinder Mann and President of South Hall – Mr. G.S.
